

Clinch Memorial Hospital participated in a Community Health Needs Assessment (CHNA) beginning in June 2012. Technical assistance was provided by Georgia Southern University (GSU) under the provisions of a grant provided by the State Office of Rural Health. This assessment was to determine the desired health needs of the community served by Clinch Memorial Hospital.